Joining Instructions

Rift Valley Institute of Business Studies admits those applicants who are ready to acquire skills and benefit from entrepreneurial training that will help them unleash their full potential.

Admission specialists will review your application and supporting documentation carefully to assess your overall academic preparation.

In evaluating your application, the institution will consider the following factors:

- Mean Grade scored and KCSE or any past certificate for placement into a course of choice.
- Prior knowledge and trainings to help in credit transfers and choice of examination body.
- The mode of study chosen in order to rightfully place you in the class where you most benefit.

Before you apply for admission at RVIBS, you are encouraged to carefully consider the various diploma, craft certificate and artisan courses available.

Please visit the departments section on this website and you will be guided on joining requirements for various courses.

In case of any questions please ask on chat, call or sms 0715111101.

After choosing the course of study, fill the application form and submit for action.

Our dedicated admissions team will receive your application and get back to you within twenty-four hours after a successful submission of a duly filled application form either online or offline.
